

Contact:

Kristen Rogers, Utah Division of State History
801/533-3542 or krogers@utah.gov

Claudia Nakano, Communications Director
Utah Department of Community and Culture
801/538-8805

September 24, 2008

State History Announces Award Winners

At its annual conference in September, State History announced the winners of its 2008 History

Awards:

Outstanding Achievement Awards:

- Stratford Hotel, Salt Lake City, for a renovation that combines affordable housing, mixed use, livability, sustainability, and historic preservation.
- Utah State Capitol, for one of the finest, most meticulous major preservation projects ever completed in the United States.
- Salt Lake Tabernacle, for preserving and enhancing the historic fabric while protecting the building seismically.

Outstanding Contribution Awards:

- Roy D. Tea, for 48 years of researching, photographing, and marking California Trails in western states.
- Gibbs Smith of Gibbs Smith Books, for many years of publishing Utah history, including textbooks.
- Karen Krieger of the Utah Division of State Parks, for her commitment to preserving, interpreting, and providing public access to cultural artifacts.

William P. MacKinnon Award for Staff Development

- Arie LeeFlang, Archaeology Records Manager for State History

Publication Awards:

- Richard Ian Kimball, "The Right Sort to Bring to the City: Jack Johnson, Boxing, and Boosterism in Salt Lake City": Dale L. Morgan Award for the best scholarly article in the Utah Historical Quarterly in 2007.
- Benjamin Harris, "In Deed and in Word: The Anti-Apartheid Movement at the University of Utah, 1978-1987": Charles Redd Center for Western Studies Award for the best general-interest article in UHQ in 2007.

- Robert Parson, “Leftward March: Student Liberalism at the Utah State Agricultural College”: Nick Yengich Memorial Award for the UHQ article selected as editors’ choice.
- Ted Moore, “Democratizing the Air: the Salt Lake Women’s Chamber of Commerce and Air Pollution, 1936-1945”: Best Utah Historic Article Award for an article appearing in a publication other than the Utah Historical Quarterly.
- Jenny Reeder, “Representative Women of Deseret: Strategic Re-Imaging of American Victorian Female Respectability”: Helen Papanikolas Award for the best college student’s paper on Utah women’s history.
- B. Camon Hardy, Doing the Works of Abraham: Mormon Polygamy: Its Origin, Practice, and Demise: Smith-Pettit Foundation Best Documentary Book on Utah History Award
- Frederick H. Swanson, Dave Rust: A Life in the Canyons: Francis Armstrong Madsen Best Utah History Book Award.

Honorary Life Member

Linda Thatcher, retired Research and Collections Coordinator for State History.

Utah State Historical Society Fellows

- B. Carmon Hardy
- Gary Shumway

###